The Holy Eucharist and the Investiture of The Right Reverend Sean Rowe as Twenty-Eighth Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church

The Chapel of Christ the Lord
815 Second Avenue, New York

Saturday, November 2, 2024, 11am

THE INVESTITURE OF
THE PRESIDING BISHOP AND PRIMATE OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME!

Today we sing a new song to God: the melody of a renewed communion, the tune of our faith, with its vibrant heritage and radiant future. We are gathered in cathedrals, churches, chapels, and homes around the world. We come from intimate rural parishes and sprawling urban ones, as longtime church members and newcomers to the faith. As we gather, we bring our diverse gifts: gifts of music, dance, teaching, preaching, poetry, and friendship. We present these gifts in the form of the most precious offering to God, our very selves, that all that we do may be for God's glory in the unity of Christ's church.

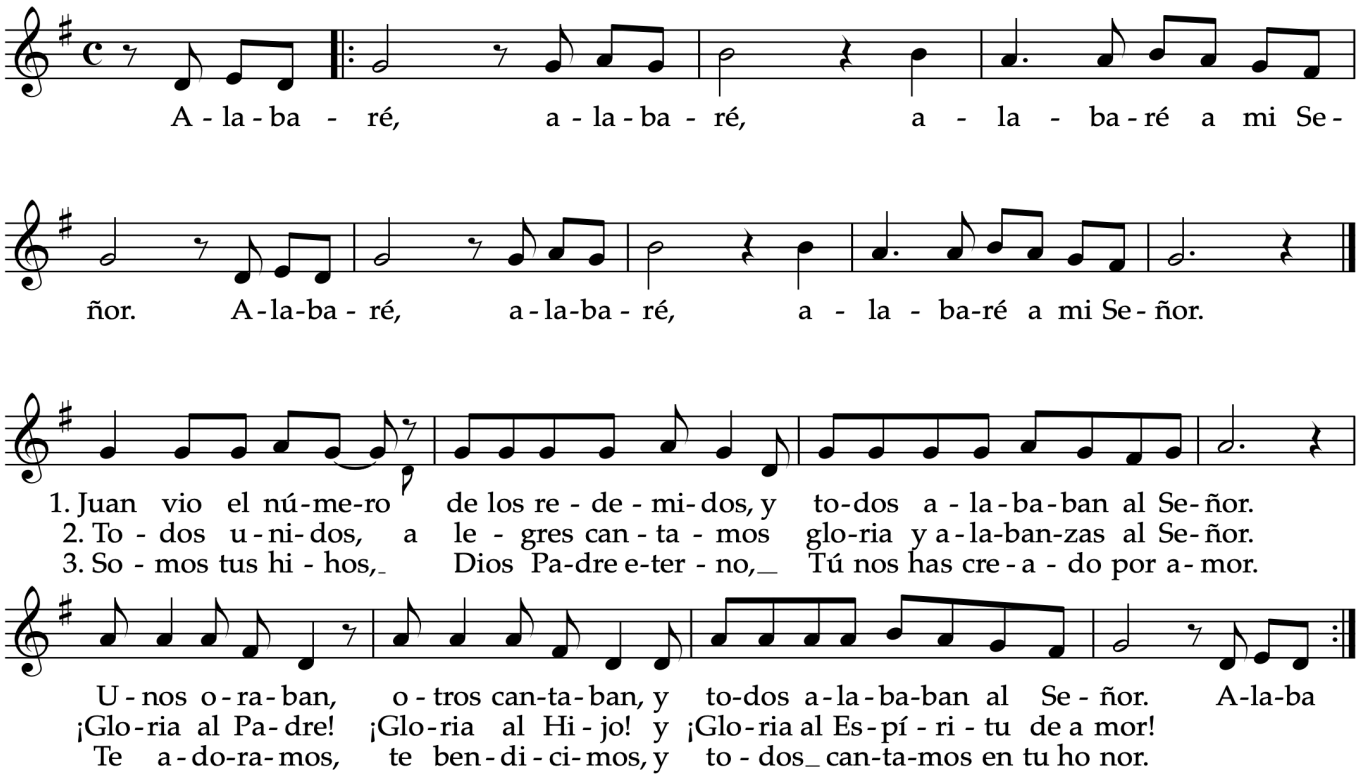

We gather to affirm the leadership of our communion and to welcome the new Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church as he commits himself to the work of traveling alongside God's people on our journey together, guiding the church, and protecting God's people to the best of his abilities. As we come together at the font and renew our baptismal vows, we affirm the promise of our faith: that we are made in God's image to do God's work, that we are members of Christ's one body, and that, empowered by the Spirit, we are participants in the divine mystery. The covenant that we remember today is a sign of God's unfailing love for all creation, as well as a call to take our part in God's transforming work.

Today Sean Rowe accepts a call to proclaim God's love in Christ for all the world. As he enters into this new ministry, we are called to join him in building up the Body of Christ. With him, we are called to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind. We, too, are called to bear with one another in the unity of the Spirit, to grow the church, and to speak the truth in love. His mission is our work. It is the Church's work. It is our calling.

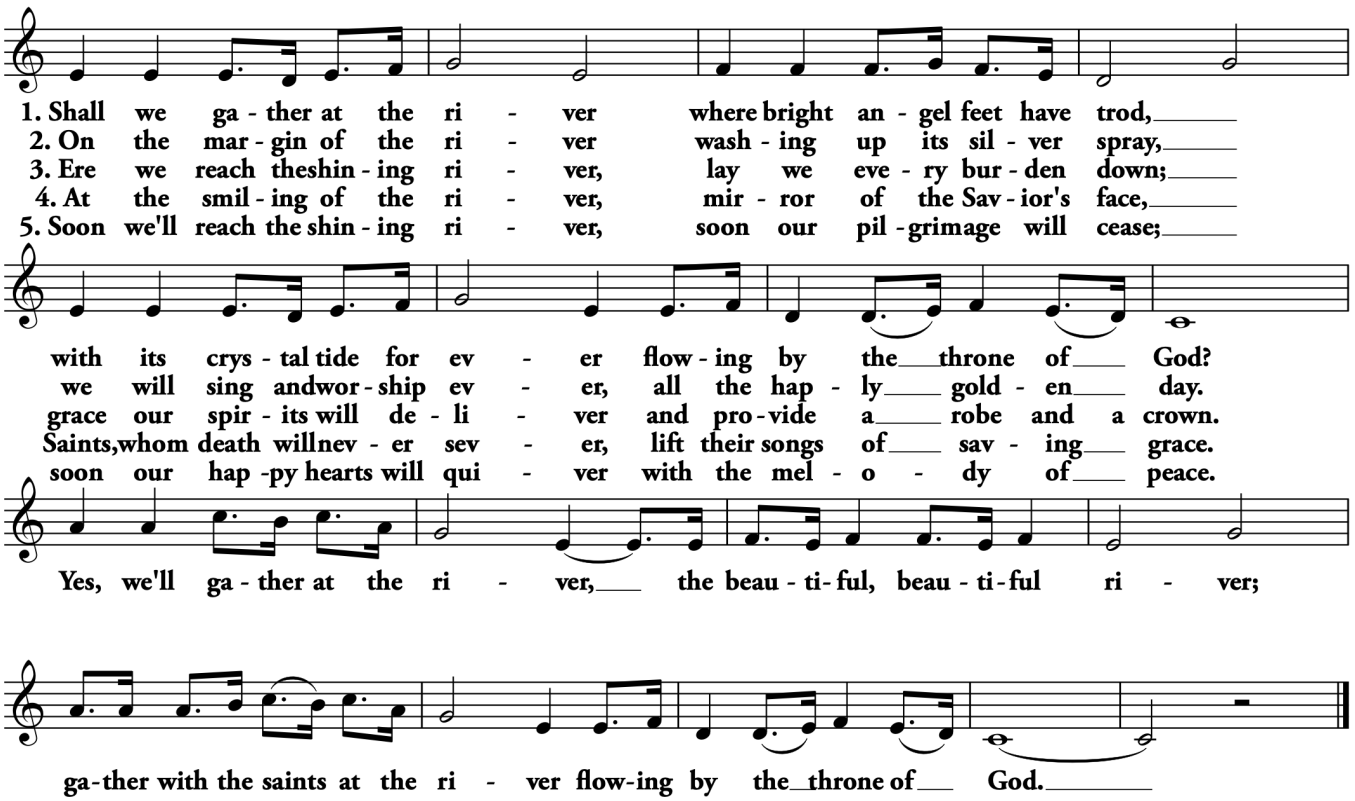

We welcome you to this virtual event streamed from the Chapel of Christ the Lord at The Episcopal Church Center in New York City and we are glad you are witnessing and worshipping with us today. On this historic and joyful occasion, we invite you to pray for guidance for our Church and our new Presiding Bishop, as he leads us in envisioning the reign of God in our midst. May our celebration today unite us as a sacramental community, and may we be filled with new energy to bear witness to God's work of redemption.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

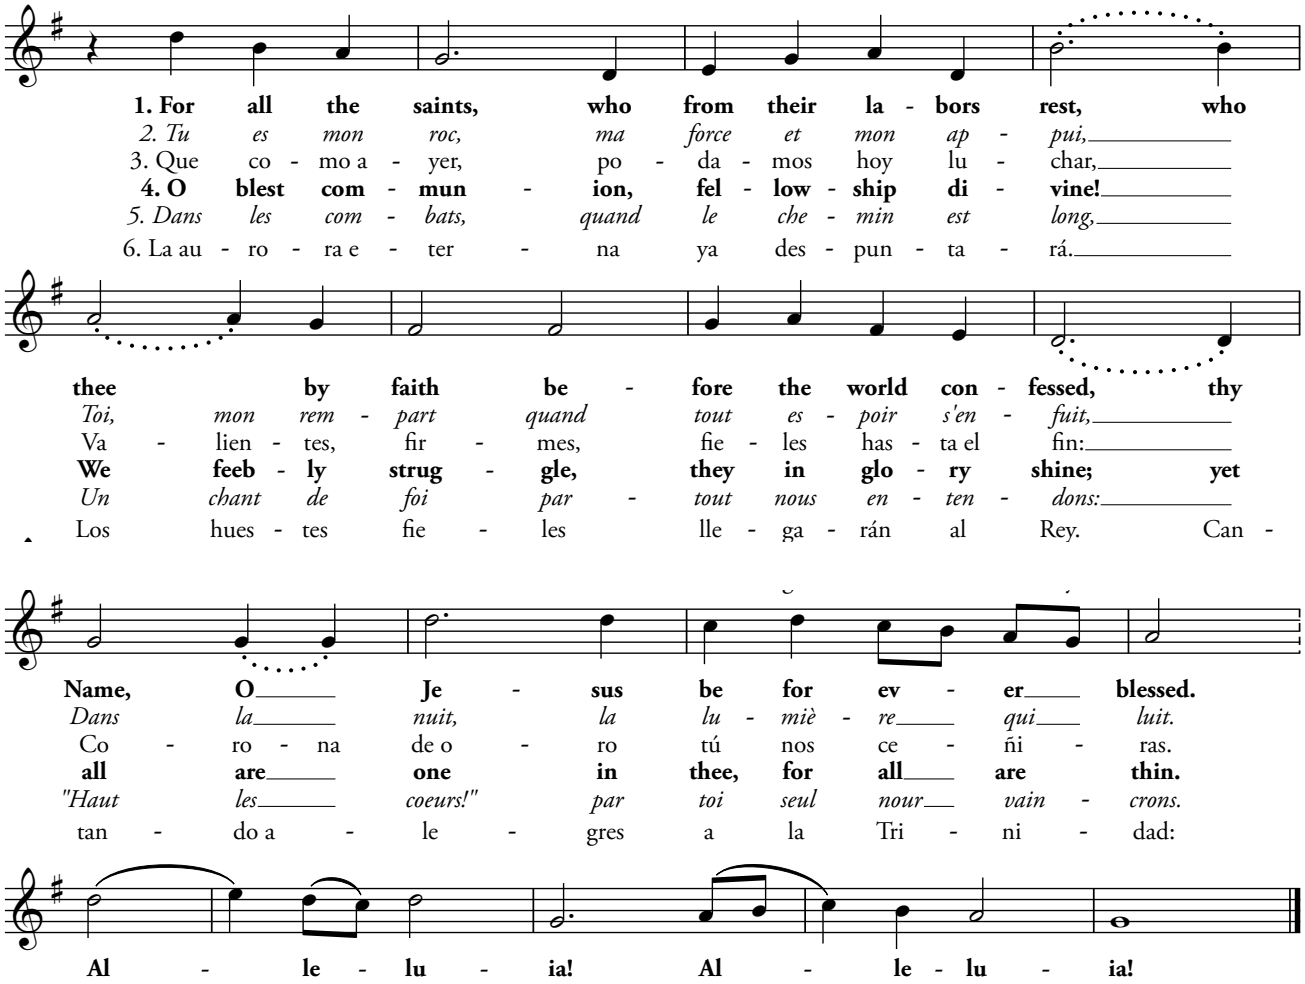

All stand as are able

The Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori

We honor the land and the Indigenous people on whose traditional territory the Church Center in Manhattan is located. With gratitude, we acknowledge the Munsee and Lenape people, whose home this land was for thousands of years. We also acknowledge all those whose territories interconnect us – the indigenous peoples of every land that is home for those gathered today. As we make this land acknowledgment, we are mindful of the traumatic history of systemic racism and oppression in the history of this nation and in the Church – a history we are only beginning to understand. We reaffirm our commitment to learning, growing, and finding new ways for meaningful, mutual healing as we move forward together.

OPENING HYMN & PROCESSION TO THE BAPTISMAL FONT

HYMN • FOR ALL THE SAINTS, WHO FROM THEIR LABORS REST

7. But lo! There breaks a yet more glorious day; the Saints triumphant rise in bright array; the King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia! Alleluia!

8. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearls streams in the countless host singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE GREETING & WELCOME

Bishop Curry I greet you in the Name of Christ. Grace and peace be with you.

People And also with you.

Diocesan Representatives Dear friends in Christ, we bring before you this pastor and bishop who has served among us faithfully. With gratitude in our hearts, we send him forth to be Chief Pastor and Primate of this Church.

Investiture Committee Representative Who are you and why have you come?

Bishop Rowe I am, a servant and follower of Jesus Christ, and I come as one seeking the grace of God and the prayers of God's holy people as we embark on a new journey with our Lord and Savior.

Investiture Committee Representative We welcome you to this place. How do you come among us and with what confidence?

Bishop Rowe I come knowing nothing except Jesus Christ, crucified and risen. I come as a pilgrim to be in prayer with the people of God in order to be strengthened for the journey ahead.

Bishop Curry Sean, Bishop in the Church of God, we have anticipated your arrival with great joy. In the Name of Christ, we greet you.

People In the name of Christ, we greet you.

Bishop Rowe With all my heart, I thank you for your welcome. I hope to serve among you in Christ's name and in the joy of the Spirit. May the peace of God be upon this gathering and all who witness from afar.

Bishop Curry Sean, during the 81st General Convention you were elected by the House of Bishops to succeed me and to serve as the 28th Presiding Bishop and Primate of The Episcopal Church.

President Harris Your election by the House of Bishops was confirmed by the House of Deputies and you accepted your election in the presence of both Houses.

Bishop Curry Do you now, in the presence of God and the Church gathered for worship here and in various places, commit yourself to this trust and responsibility?

Bishop Rowe I do, and with God's help, will strive to be a faithful shepherd and pastor among you.

Bishop Curry Dear friends in Christ, will you who witness this pledge do all in your power to support and uphold Sean in this ministry?

People We will!

Bishop Rowe Siblings in Christ, as we begin this new season of witness and service, may our celebration recall us to the unity that is given in Holy Baptism and nurtured by the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. May we rejoice in the many gifts for ministry enriching the life of our Church and be strengthened in heart and mind and spirit to proclaim the Good News of Christ and to manifest Christ's presence in the world.

People Amen.

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Bishop Curry Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, in this time of new beginnings, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy Catholic Church.

Bishop Curry Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Bishop Rowe Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Bishop Curry Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Bishop Rowe Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Bishop Curry Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Rowe Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Curry Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Rowe Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Curry Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Rowe May Almighty God, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by God's grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People Amen.

THE THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

Water that in part has been collected from the various Dioceses within The Episcopal Church is poured into the font.

Bishop Rowe The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Bishop Rowe Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Bishop Curry We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

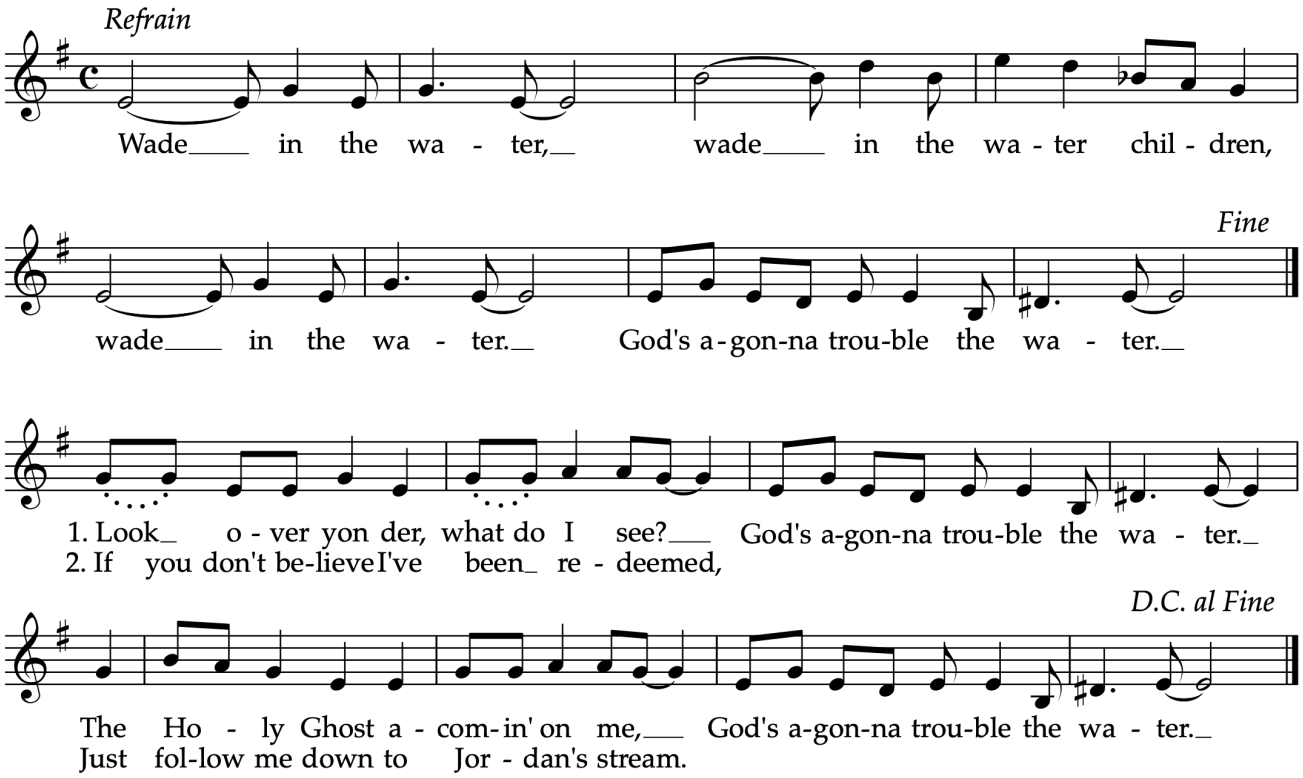

Bishop Rowe We thank you, Father, for the water of baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop Curry Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue forever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you and to the Holy Spirit be all honor and glory now and forever.

People Amen.

Bishops Curry and Rowe asperge the congregation.

HYMN • WADE IN THE WATER

Bishops Curry and Rowe stand before the altar at the conclusion of the asperges, attended by their chaplains, and offer the following prayer.

Bishop Curry Eternal God, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit: keep us, who have been renewed by water and revived in your Spirit, faithful to our calling, and steadfast in our covenant.

Bishop Rowe Give us inquiring and discerning hearts, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

People Amen.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE PRIMATIAL STAFF

Bishop Curry Sean, receive this Pastoral Staff, the symbol of your authority and ministry as Chief Pastor and Primate of The Episcopal Church. May Christ the Good Shepherd sustain you as you carry it in his Name.

Bishop Rowe I receive this staff from you, and give thanks to God for your faithful ministry and for all who have carried this responsibility before me.

People Amen.

Prayers for the Presiding Bishop

Maya Lattimer
Youth
Representative Gracious God, shower upon this your servant Sean, the grace and power you gave to your apostles in proclaiming the good news of our redemption in Jesus. As an ambassador for Christ, guide him as he seeks to shepherd this Church in its devotion to your mission in the world. Grant him every joy in serving your people and every courage of conviction for what is good and right and just for all. So bless his heartbeat and his outlook; so inspire his writing and his speaking; so direct his words and his ways, that the glories of your reign of love and peace may be known throughout this nation and to the ends of the earth. This we pray in the Name of your dear Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

People Amen.

Bishop Jefferts Schori Holy God, we acknowledge with awe that you have blessed your servant Sean with all that he needs to be who you have called him to be. We pray that, with humility and grace, he will claim the gifts you have given him and use them to your glory and honor. Grant him the leadership qualities of Moses, the judgement of Deborah, the wisdom of Solomon, the courage of Esther, the risk-taking of Peter, the hope of Martha, and the witness of Mary Magdalene. Help him to seek and do your will, so that the world will know that he loves and follows Jesus. Embolden him to speak truth to power, to keep a servant's heart, and to work faithfully to cast a vision of peace and reconciliation for The Episcopal Church and your whole Church here on earth. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon him, we pray, in the Name of the One who calls and sends us today, and every day.

People Amen.

Bishop Rowe O Holy God, in Christ you make all things new. Today I devote myself to your service. Grant me wisdom and compassion, that I may be a faithful witness to your Gospel and a pastor to your people. Fill my life with praise for your marvelous work, that I may serve you with joy. Fill your Church with the power of your Spirit, that our ministry together may bring healing to your world and glory to your Name. Kindle in us the flame of holy charity and the power of faith that transforms the world. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Bishop Curry presents the new Presiding Bishop and his family to the people. The people greet them with applause.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Bishop Rowe The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Bishop Rowe Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

People Amen.

The people may be seated.

The Word of God

A READING FROM THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON (3:1-9)

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

PSALM 24

Domini est terra

Anglican Chant with Taizé response: Psalms for All Seasons 24D

1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.

2 For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
Refrain.

3 "Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? *
and who can stand in his holy place?"

4 "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud. Refrain.

5 They shall receive a blessing from the Lord * and a just reward from the God of their salvation."

6 Such is the generation of those who seek him,
*
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
Refrain.

7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.

8 "Who is this King of glory?" *
"The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle." Refrain.

9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.

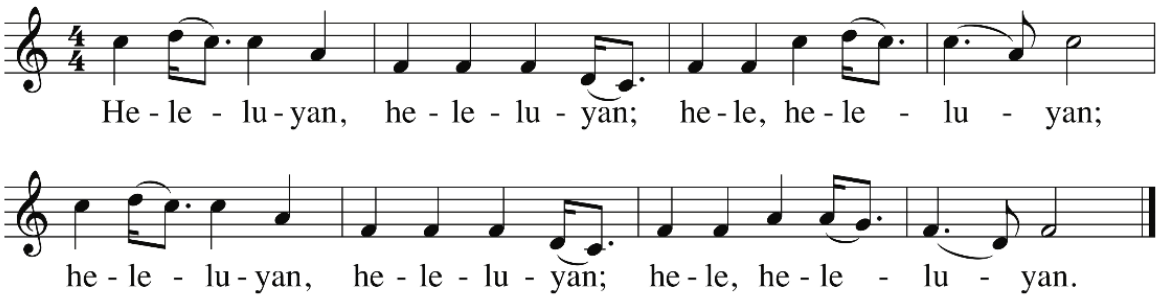

10 "Who is he, this King of glory?" *
"The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory." Refrain.

A READING FROM THE REVELATION TO JOHN (21:1-6A)

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

THE HOLY GOSPEL (JOHN 11:32-44)

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

The Great Thanksgiving

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER B

(Expansive Language)

The people remain standing. The Presiding Bishop faces them and says

	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Presiding Bishop	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Presiding Bishop	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Presiding Bishop proceeds

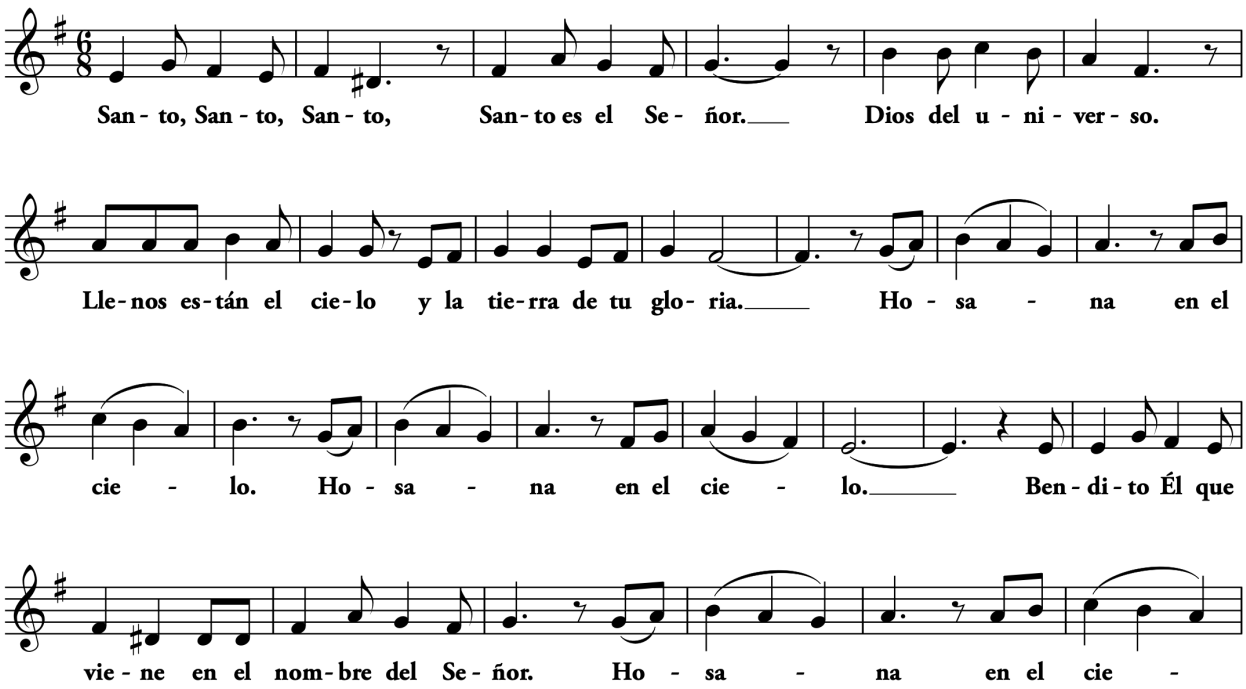

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

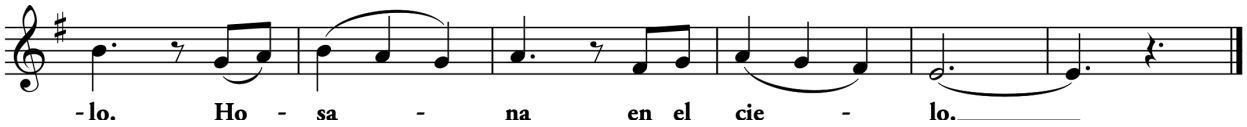

For in the multitude of your saints, you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presiding Bishop and People

SANTO

The people stand or kneel as able.

Then the Presiding Bishop continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Presiding Bishop and People

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

The Presiding Bishop continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presiding Bishop breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Facing the people, the Presiding Bishop says the following Invitation or similar words.

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

and may add

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

COMMUNION ANTHEM • O QUAM GLORIOSUM EST REGNUM

O quam gloriosum est regnum, in quo cum Christo gaudent omnes Sancti.
Amicti stolis albis, sequuntur Agnum quocumque ierit.

O how glorious is the kingdom in which all the saints rejoice with Christ, clad in robes of white they follow the Lamb wherever he goes.

¡Oh, qué glorioso es el reino en que todos los santos se alegran con Cristo!
Vestidos con túnicas blancas, siguen al Cordero dondequiera que vaya.

O ki jan glorye se wayòm nan kote tout sen yo rejwi ak Kris la,

哦 众圣徒与基督一同喜乐的国度是何等荣耀
无论羔羊走到哪里，他们都穿着白袍跟随他.

HYMN • PRECIOUS LORD, TAKE MY HAND

HYMN • SARANAM

After Communion, the Presiding Bishop says

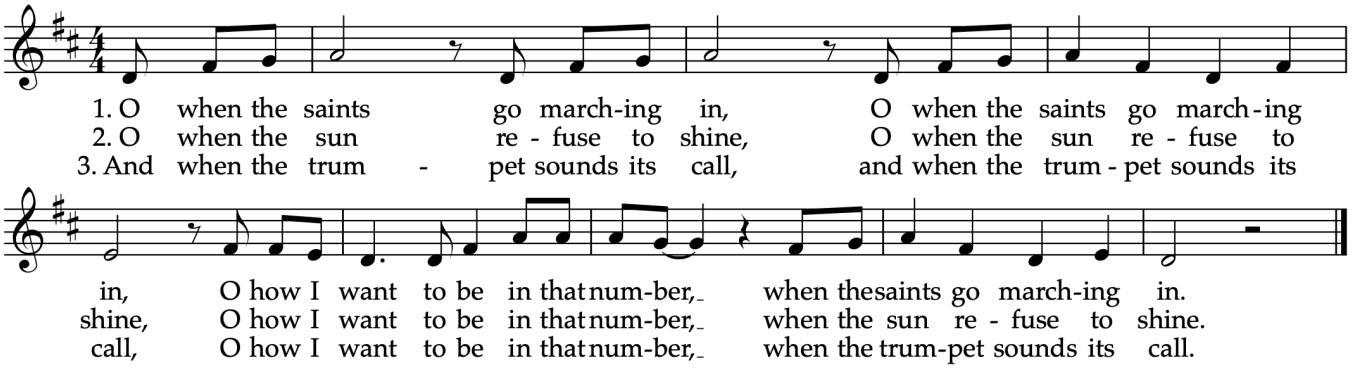

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of Christ, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Presiding Bishop blesses the people

HYMN • O WHEN THE SAINTS GO MARCHING IN

The Deacon dismisses the people with these words

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve Jesus Christ our Savior.
People Thanks be to God.
